WINTERS FRIENDS of the LIBRARY

An Invitation from

to our

Annual Gathering

November 2, at 6 p.m. at the Winters Library

Come join us for appetizers and beverages installation of new board members and a talk with Winters author

Catriona McPherson

A Winters resident since immigrating from Scotland in 2010, Catriona is the author of 10 books in the multi-award-winning Dandy Gilver detective series, and has also written four contemporary suspense novels. The first of these won the prestigious Anthony award and the follow-up was a finalist for the Edgar, mystery fiction's highest honor.

She will be talking about her latest suspense novel - The Child Garden and also about how libraries have influenced her life.
